Hymn

With truth and faith and honor
United as one are we
With colors golden
To tint the sky and blue
That matches the sea
As we walk on the pathway
Of knowledge
To all the world we'll be
Giving our all in every way
With never failing loyalty
We vow to love you, Burbank High
With lasting fidelity.

Fight Song

Here come the Titans
Mighty and strong
Here come the Titans
They are never wrong
When they go chargin
Down the football field
You'd better watch out
Get out of our way
Before they make that play
Come on, hey hit the line, boys
Raise up that score
That's the way to go, boys
Now we need one more
Now we've got a good team
And we're gonna win
We're really gonna fight
Come on, Titans
We're for you.

Spain — Marcelo Dominguez

This year in the U.S.A. for me has been an incredible experience in which I have learned how it is in real life in this nice sweet corner of the U.S. called California. There wouldn't be room to put the initials of all the friends I've made here, even if I had the whole book to write, and that's something that's worth the year itself. I'd like to especially thank the A.F.S. club at school, because I imagine how hard they worked and how many headaches they had to get an exchange student. I hope you'll be able to make someone's dream real in the future, as you did with me. Ah! And don't any of you ever forget to visit me if you ever go to Spain!!!

You may not believe this but the drama department has never had publicity like what you gave us, and we can only give you a big fat SWAK. That's not just from me mind you. It's from the whole drama department. We'll be seeing you I'm sure. Love, Lynn Vidal

If you love something,
You must let it go free,
And after it is free,
If it comes back to you,
It will be yours forever,
And if it doesn't,
It never was.
